

Kansas 2006 School Health Profiles Results

Selected Topics Fact Sheet

Health Education	Percent for schools with students in grades 9-12
Among schools that required health education, percent that required 2 or more health education courses	34%
Percent of schools that had a health education coordinator	17%
Percent of schools in which the lead health education teacher had preparation in health education or in health and physical education combined	53%
HIV, STD and Pregnancy Prevention	Percent for schools with students in grades 9-12
Among schools that required a health education course, percent that taught HIV prevention	98%
Among schools that required a health education course, percent that taught STD prevention	95%
Among schools that required a health education course, percent that taught pregnancy prevention	95%
Among schools that required a health education course, percent that taught abstinence as the most effective method to avoid HIV infection	92%
Percent of schools in which the lead health education teacher received staff development during the past 2 years on HIV prevention	44%
Asthma	Percent for schools with students in grades 9-12
Percent of schools that provided a full-time registered nurse all day, every day	83%
Percent of schools that obtained and used an Asthma Action Plan for all students with asthma	48%
Percent of schools that education school staff about asthma	16%

Kansas 2006 School Health Profiles Results

Selected Topics Fact Sheet

Unintentional Injuries and Violence		Percent for schools with students in grades 9-12
Percent of schools that maintained a closed campus during lunch		85%
Percent of schools that used staff or adult volunteers to monitor school halls during and between classes		94%
Percentage of schools that required students to wear identification badges		4%
Among schools that required a health education course, percent that taught accident or injury prevention		83%
Among schools that required a health education course, percent that taught violence prevention		84%
Where can I find more information? More information about the 2006 Kansas School Health Profiles is available on The Kansas Coordinated School Health website: www.kshealthykids.org

